HONGKONG, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1888.

VICTORIA REGATTA.

FIRST DAY.—THURSDAY, 13TH DECEMBER.

The thirty-third V. R. C. Regatta was commenced this afternoon, under most unfavorable circumstances, a drizzling rain falling and the general surroundings being anything but agreeable. It cleared up, however, later on, and some good racing was witnessed.

We append results of to-day's sport, leaving over a full report until Saturday.

"JUNIOR SCULLS"—For Single Pair Sculling Boats. Entrance, $5. Distance, One Mile. Prize, "Brokers' Cup." Three Boats to start or no Race. Open to any one who has never won a Sculling Race in China or Japan.

Station No. 1—G. Bramwell, 12st. olb., Scotia 1. Station No. 2—M. Fredericks, 8st. olb., Jumbo 2. Station No. 4—F. G. Brooker, rot. 12lb., Daisy 3. Station No. 3—C. R. Foot, 11st. 8lb.; Violet 0.

Bramwell slightly favored by the inside station, drew clear away immediately the gun fired, and without ever being approached won very easily by a hundred yards from Fredericks, who defeated Brooker by two lengths for second honours after a capital struggle. Time 8 min. 52 seconds.

FOR HEAVY GIGS pulled by European Non-Commissioned Officers and Men of any Regiment or Corps in Garrison, or by European Members of the Police Force. The Boats to be approved by the Committee. Time allowed for Oars. Four Boats must start for two Prizes. Distance, One Mile. Entrance, $1. First Prize, $15; Second, $1.

Station No. 2—Royal Artillery's Ulique, 6-Oars 1. Station No. 2—Royal Artillery's Gunner, 6-Oars 2. Station No. 1—Royal Engineer's Cambridge, 6-Oars.

The three boats kept well together for half the journey when the Ulique, on the outside, drew out with a slight lead, the other R.A. gig also gradually leaving the Engineers astern. Opposite the Government Coal Sheds the Ulique had the race in hand and eventually won very cleverly by a length, the Cambridge finishing a fair third.

"AMERICAN CUP"—Presented by the American Community. For Four-Oars. Distance, One Mile. Entrance, $10.

Station No. 1—Leek—J. Little, 11st. olb.; T. Dalby, 11st. 2lb.; J. A. Fredericks, 10st. 5lb.; A. Duer, 10st. 8lb. (stroke); G. A. White, 6st. 2lb. (cox).

Station No. 4—Shamrock—G. J. Duncan, 10st. 6lb.; G. H. Potts, 11st. 1lb.; W. Powell, 12st. 5lb.; F. B. Shepherd, 10st. olb. (stroke); M. Fredericks, 8st. 2lb. (cox).

Station No. 2—Rose—J. M. G. Manuk, 10st. 10lb.; F. H. Shepherd, 9st. 8lb. (stroke); W. Stopani, 6st. 6lb. (cox).

Station No. 3—Kornblume—W. D. Bradwood, 9st. 8lb.; E. Smithy, 10st. 6lb.; J. S. Legge, 1st. 10lb.; T. W. Lammett, 11st. 2lb. (stroke); J. Tigh, 6st. 6lb. (cox).

Duer's crew were most fancied, but the event was considered very open. To a capital start E. B. Shepherd got best away and quickly showed in front, closely followed by the Rose, the favorite third, and Kornblume outpaced after the first.

The sailing races had not finished when our report left.

dozen strokes. For the first quarter of a mile it was a ding-dong race between the Shamrock and Rose, and then the Leek gradually commenced to creep up—after narrowly escaping being upset owing to bow catching a crab—and at the half distance had got on terms with the leaders. Slowly but surely Duer drew to the front, and although the two Shepherds spurred again and again it proved of no avail, and the Leek was landed a handsome winner by five lengths from Shamrock, the Rose pulling up about a hundred yards from the winning post.

FOR MEN-OF-WAR'S GIGS AND WHALERS.—Distance, One Mile. Entrance, $1. First Prize, $15; Second, $5. Time allowed for Oars, 8—seconds per Oar.

Impériale, 8 bars..... 1
Impériale galley, 8 bars..... 2
Victor Emanuel's galley, 8 bars..... 3

There were six starters and after a tremendous struggle for the final half mile, H.M.S. Impériale's white galley drew away in the last three hundred yards and won by 20 seconds. A grand finish between the Impériale green galley and the Commodore's galley, pulled by Chinese, ended in favor of the Britishers by a few inches in the very last stroke.

LADIES' PURSE.—Presented by the Ladies of Hongkong. For Four-Oars. Distance, One Mile. Entrance, $10.

Station No. 3—Victoria—E. Blair, 10st. 9lb.; W. Taylor, 10st. 8lb.; A. G. Stephen, 10st. 10lb.; J. H. Stewart Lockhart, 12st. 10lb. (stroke); W. Stopani, 6st. 6lb. (cox).

Station No. 4—Shamrock—L. D. Crichton rot. 10lb.; F. S. Field, 11st. 11lb.; R. B. Garde, 11st. 2lb.; T. D. Hickley, 11st. 1lb. (stroke); W. Howard, 9st. 2lb. (cox).

Station No. 1—Kornblume—F. H. Shepherd, 9st. 8lb.; G. H. Potts, 11st. 11lb.; A. Denison, 11st. 12lb.; H. F. Hayllar, 11st. 2lb. (stroke); E. Cole, 8st. 5lb. (cox).

Station No. 2—Leek—E. B. Shepherd, 10st. 8lb.; G. Bramwell, 12st. 8lb.; H. C. Metcalfe, 13st. 7lb.; Major H. J. 12st. 10lb. (stroke); J. Tighe, 6st. 6lb. (cox).

This was considered a certainty for the English International crew, offers to bet 3 to 1 on them against the field failing to meet with any response. The four boats were despatched on equal terms; but Ellis quickly assumed the lead from the Scotch crew, the other pair close together, keeping well within hail. Before going three hundred yards, Lockhart's crew, pulling in capital form, passed the favorites, and soon were a length in front, Hickley about the same time spurring and getting on terms with Ellis. A long way from the winning post the English international representatives were clean out of the race, and although both Hickley and Hayllar beat the Scotchmen home the issue was never really in doubt, the St. Andrew's Cross getting the winning gun about two lengths in front of the Naval men, with Hayllar a very good third. Time 8 min. 25 secs.

A FIRST class programme was gone through in splendid style at Chiarini's Circus last night. Owing to the wet weather the audience was smaller than usual, but what they lacked in numbers was made up for by the enthusiastic reception given to all the performers. We hold over a detailed notice. The performance this evening commences at 9 o'clock.

ABOUT three o'clock this morning a large market boat anchored off the Prava began to fill, the water being rough. There were seventeen people on board, and the boat was also filled with produce. The buckets used for baling washed away, and altogether it was a miniature shipwreck. Four men jumped overboard to swim ashore, but P. C. Hanson and Graham picked them up in the Police launch, lent them balers, and enabled them to clear the junk of water. The Chinamen for once seemed really greatful.

THE IDEA of "thumb-rings," to which we alluded some little time ago, has become an established fact, and jewellers are showing broadbands of dull gold with large jewel sun deeply inset them, designed to encircle that clumsy member, the thumb. The facts have been traced that Queen Elizabeth decorated her royal thumb with a ring, and the fashion was revived during the reign of George II. Eccentricity is the key-note to jewelled ornaments, and the dainty woman who cannot bring her nerves into sufficient subjection to permit her wearing live, spider-like bugs as ornaments consoles herself with very realistic imitations.

AT a regular meeting of the Corinthian-Lodge No. 186, held at Amoy on Saturday the 8th inst. Bro. W. C. Lewis was duly installed as Worship Master for the year 1889, and invested the following officers:—

SPAKING of the question which is just now being so eagerly discussed in many circles, the Jewish Standard says: Ask the Jewish housewife, the Jewish mother, whether marriage is a failure? She will not understand you. She will stand bewildered in the face of such a question, and if you explain to her what you mean she will tell you that a Jewish mother sees in marriage the acme of happiness, because of womanly duty; that all these new-fangled notions are simply the outcome of the brain of some man or woman who missed the true mark of life, and whose life is a failure. She will point to her children, as Cornelia of old did. She will extol her husband as the ideal of her life.

THE COURRIER D'HAIKONG of the 2nd inst. gives the following quantities of rice as exported from Haikong during the five months of the latter half of this year. In July, 514,912 kilogrammes, of the value of $11,462; in August, 498,352 kil., $11,255; in September, 573,657 kil., $16,686.40; in October, 567,803 kil., $16,595; in November, 4,341,601 kil., $102,402. Total, 6,085,405 kil., $159,399.40. The following quantities were exported to Annam:—July, 505,254 kil., $17,063; August, 970,112 kil., $33,980; September, 1,397,101 kil., $35,870; October, 16,800 kil., $395; November, 35,250 kil., $1,426. Total, 2,924,516 kil., $78,734. The total export of rice for foreign ports and for Annam was 9,509,921 kilos, of the aggregate value of $236,133. During the first half-year, it was 312,217 kilos, valued at $7,216; showing an increase for the second half, of 9,822,18 kilos, valued at $245,349. A kilogramme being equal to 2.56 lbs. av. the total export during the first half-year and the five months of the remaining half would be above $9,340 tons.

THE HONGKONG TELEGRAPH, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1888.

set on foot by her Excellency the Marchioness of Dufferin and Ava, and that with this view the following objects were determined upon, namely the construction of an additional female ward in the Mitford Hospital, to be called the Lady Dufferin Ward; the maintenance of lady doctor, and the foundation of an scholarship for female medical students. The resolution was carried unanimously. With this object, the Nawab Ahsanullah is giving Rs. 5000 and Raja Rajendra Narain Roy of Joydephore, Rs. 1000, while the Maharaja of Susang and others promise various amounts.

GNAUTONG, November 25th.

At last we have received definite news of the movements of the Chinese Amban. A party of Chinese messengers from Gyantsé arrived in camp to-day. They convey missives addressed to our Political Officer, and state that the Amban left Lhasa on the 10th of November, and is advancing by the usual stages. He is therefore expected to arrive in Chumbi on one of the first days of December.

PADONG, November 26th.

Brigadier-General Graham left this morning for Darjiling to confer with Mr. Durand, the Secretary of the Foreign Office, but is expected back shortly.

Information has arrived that the Chinese Amban left Lhasa on the 15th instant.

The 32nd Pioneers, who have been at the front from the commencement of the campaign, will, it is believed, be withdrawn. Eighty of the regiment arrived to-day from the posts on the lines of communication, their places being taken by the 2nd and 1st Goorkhas.

The men of the detachment of the Derbyshire Regiment here have all been supplied with post-tents, and expect to proceed to Gnatong early next month. It is rumoured that they will be relieved there in a few weeks by four or five hundred men of the Connaught Rangers.

SUICIDE OF A SHANGHAI CAPTAIN.

A sad occurrence took place at the Central Hotel during last night (December 7th). For many years past, Captain William Webb Bowen, who was formerly in command of steamers belonging to the China Navigation Company, has been a well-known figure in Shanghai, and his peculiarities have caused him to be a great deal talked about. Latterly he has lived at the Central Hotel, following no occupation, having a good competency, so that it was unnecessary for him to follow any employment. His eccentricities were chiefly in respect to his marvellous luck in lotteries and speculations, which existed only apparently, in his own imagination, and the impression has prevailed for a long time that the weakness of his mind rendered him irresponsible for many of his actions. Still, however, he was remarkably acute in the management of his monetary affairs. During the past month, we hear, he has been more than usually strange in regard to his large winnings, labouring under the hallucination that he had become possessed of nine million taels, but there was no difference in his spirits, or mode of life, except that he complained of sleeplessness, and to remedy this he took no dinner for the last few evenings and has been full of congratulations on his improved rest. Yesterday he took a long walk in the afternoon, and in the evening he was in the reading room at the hotel, and conversed rationally with different persons. He expressed the intention of riding in the Paper Hunt this afternoon, stating that he had his boots and cap all ready, and he felt certain that he would be among the winners. He retired to his bedroom quite early. He was an early riser, and shortly about seven o'clock this morning his boy went to his room for the purpose of telling him that his bath was ready, when he found the door locked from within, with the key in the keyhole. This had never occurred before, the door always being left unlocked. The boy at once went and told Mr. Reilly, the proprietor of the hotel, that the room was locked, and Mr. Reilly at once dressed himself and went round to Dr. Reid, who returned with him, and at the hotel he met Dr. Jamieson who was there visiting some of his patients. Carpenters were obtained from Messrs. Hall and Holtz store, and the room door, with great difficulty, was opened and a ghastly sight presented itself. Captain Bowen, was on the floor, undressed, in a kneeling position, with his head bending forward on a chair. His throat was cut and there was also a deep gash down to the bone, on the left wrist, and the bed clothing and carpet were saturated with blood. The wounds had been inflicted with a razor, which was lying near. Life was extinct, but the body not cold. Dr. Jamieson and Dr. Reid took notes of the state of affairs; the Coroner was communicated with; and later in the day an inquest was held, a report of which appears below. News of the sad occurrence rapidly spread; the eccentricities of the deceased were descended upon, and the opinion generally expressed that his end was only what was expected. Insanity, unquestionably, led to the infliction of the injuries from which he deceased died. He had no monetary reverses or trouble of any kind, and his settled competency was sufficient for all his reasonable requirements and rational enjoyment. Deceased has been in the Fast not far short of twenty years. About 1870 he was second officer of the steamer Manning. This was some time before she was sold and converted into a yacht for the Mikado of Japan; and in 1873, when the Union Company's steamers were transferred to the China Navigation Company, he was second officer of the afterwards-wrecked steamer Glenysie. He was in command of the China Navigation Company's steamers from about 1877 to 1882, and was in charge of the Shanghai when she towed off the blue-funnel steamer Achilles, loaded with tea, in the Yangtze, on the occasion which led to so much litigation before the High Courts in London. Subsequently he commanded the Zunshin, when she was on the Shanghai-Ningpo route. About 1882 his sight failed him, £5,000 was left him by a relative in Wales, and he ceased active employment going to England, afterwards to the Australian Colonies, and latterly he has lived on his means in Shanghai. It is worthy of note that a few weeks ago he contributed £100 for the assistance of a distressed widow and family.

THE INQUEST.

The inquest was held at three o'clock this afternoon. Messrs. H. J. Limby, A. S. T. Clifton, and W. H. Poole, were summoned as jurors, and they viewed the body as it had been left by the doctors in the morning. Mr. J. C. Hall, Acting Deputy Chief Justice, acting as coroner, who empanelled the jury as they stood in the room where the deceased lay.

Mr. Duncan James Reid, M.D., was the first witness called. He said: "I was called this morning about a quarter past eight to go to the Central Hotel. I got there about twenty minutes past eight. The door of the deceased's room was lock'd up. One of the panels of the door was smashed in, and then it was opened. We found deceased in a kneeling position with his head resting on a chair. His clothing and body were smeared with blood, and the bed was simply soaked with blood, a tool, and laid him on the floor and examined him. He was dead, but the body was warm and the limbs quite supple and pliable. Rigidity had not set in; I found two long but quite superficial scars running parallel to each other on the left side of the throat. The front of the left wrist had been cut open transversely with great violence, severing the veins, arteries and blood vessels, and cutting down into the bone. A sharp instrument must have been used. There were no other marks of violence. Deceased had only his pajama jacket on. On examining the bed, which was soaked with blood from the pillows to two-thirds of its length, and the blanket and pillows which were also stained with blood, we found a razor near the pillow. It was smeared with blood, which was still wet. It was the razor produced. Then the were marks of blood in other parts of the room, just as if he had walked about after cutting himself. Some of the drawers were open, and bottles and other things disturbed as if he had been searching for something. There were two bottles on the side board, one a draft, and the other a liniment marked poison. This one contained a few drops of camphor, and the cork of it was out. It was marked poison." These are the main facts.

By the Jury—I cannot say whether he had drunk the liniment. The cork of the bottle was out, but I do not know whether there had been anything in the bottle for him to drink. The impression was that he had drunk what was in the bottle. The wound on the wrist was the cause of death, from his having lost so large a quantity of blood. The ultimate cause of death, I believe, was syncope, caused by his getting out of bed and walking about the room after the excessive hemorrhage to the wound. There is no evidence as to whether he tried to cut his throat first.

Mr. Limby said that probably he tried to cut his throat and feeling the pain he stopped and then went for his wrist. Many men had tried to cut their throats and failed.

By the Jury—There was not much blood on the floor. It was nearly all on the bed, where we found a pocket handkerchief simply soaked with blood, just as if he had tried to staunch the flow of blood from his wrist. I was not his medical adviser. I did not know him at all.

By the Coroner—The liniment bottle, I have ascertained from Messrs. Llewellyn & Co., had contained an ounce of laudanum. If he had drunk all this—but the bottle was dusty and he had had it some time and no doubt had used some of it,—I do not think he would have died as quickly as he did. Partaking of the contents of the bottle would not induce a suicidal mania. A man who cuts himself as in this case, I should say was suffering from insanity, certainly temporary insanity.

William Brunn, assistant at the Central Hotel depposed—I saw deceased between seven and eight o'clock last night. He spoke to me. He was sitting in the billiard-room smoking a cigar. I asked him if he were going to the Paper Hunt. He said yes, that he was going to ride Capt. Dobie's pony, and he thought his body would win. I did not see him again till I saw his body at three o'clock to-day. He has stayed at the hotel since October 1887. He was at the hotel before—he went to Japan. I have often noticed that he acted strangely and asked curious questions. When I saw him last night he appeared the same as he usually did. I do not know of any trouble he has had that would cause him to commit suicide.

Mr. Fitz Edmund Reilly, proprietor of the Central Hotel, said—at a quarter past seven o'clock this morning I was called by Captain Bowen's boy, who told me he could not open his door, and he feared something was wrong. I dressed and went up to the room with the boy, and tried to open the door, but could not. I called out deceased's name, but receiving no reply, I concluded that he was either dead or dying, and I went for Dr. Reid, and he returned with me. With the assistance of two carpenters we burst the door open. Dr. Jamieson was also there. We found deceased, as Dr. Reid has described, and he lay on the floor just as it was seen by the jury. I last saw deceased alive about half past six o'clock last night, I did not observe anything unusual with him. I had no reason to think he was insane, but during the time he has been at the hotel his behaviour has been most eccentric, so much so that he was called by his friends "Mad Bowen." He was never violent, except on one occasion, when he had trouble with one of the servants. I had no reason to believe that he contemplated suicide. I was told to-day, however, that he threatened violence yesterday; that he had said he would shoot somebody. I do not know that he has had any trouble. So far as his monetary affairs are concerned I was led to believe that he was wealthy. He took drink sometimes, but very occasionally. Whenever he did, it seemed to affect his head. I never saw him drunk. Last Saturday he was excited after the Paper Hunt. But he was naturally very weak.

By the Jury—He was regular in his habits, and took a great deal of exercise, so that the little drink he took would not affect him much. I have often seen him out walking three and four miles from Shanghai. He was what you would call a steady man, but very eccentric.

By the Coroner—I have known him for ten or twelve years. For the last two or three years I have heard him spoken of as "Mad Bowen."

The Coroner asked the Jury if they wished to have more light on his death?

Mr. Limby—No, nothing more than Mr. Reilly has said. I have known him for many years, so have the other jurors. I was in his company some hours last Sunday, and he was talking very strange then.

The Jury did not think it necessary to hear further evidence, and retired to consider their verdict. They returned in a few minutes, and pronounced a verdict "That deceased committed suicide while in a state of unsound mind."

The Coroner concurred in the verdict and thanked the Jury for their attendance.—Courier.

SWATOW.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT)

Swatow, December 11th.

It is often that the monotony of our life in the Outports is pleasantly intruded upon by such an event as a wedding. On the 10th inst. the marriage of Mr. Cecil Percy Dawson, our Assistant Harbour Master in the Imperial Customs here, to Miss Pauline Louise Focken of Double Island, was solemnized and subsequently celebrated in a manner worthy of the occasion. Our little Church was tastefully decorated with flowers and choice plants, kindly sent by the ladies of the community. Great interest was evinced in the ceremony, as was shown by the presence of all the residents of the Port.

The bride, who was exquisitely dressed, looked charming in every respect, and the galaxy of grace and beauty represented by the bridesmaids materially enhanced the happy proceedings. I am not sufficiently well posted in the dressmaker and milliner's art to attempt to describe the dresses of the bride and bridesmaids, otherwise I would gladly do so for the benefit of the ladies.

The wedding breakfast took place at the house of the bride's father. There was a brilliant assemblage and while the good things provided were being discussed several toasts were duly honored, accompanied in each instance by a few appropriate remarks.

"The bride and bridegroom" were toasted with much enthusiasm, the compliment being most ably responded to by the happy bridegroom.

"The ladies," proposed by Mr. Woodruff, and "The Bridesmaids," proposed by Mr. Haslewood, were also most heartily honored. The happy pair eventually departed amidst the inevitable showers of rice and old slippers. Dancing was then kept up to a late hour, which terminated the joyful festivities.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson have the hearty congratulations and best wishes of all the Swatow community for their future happiness and prosperity.

A gentleman, having to transact a great deal of business in the Chemulpo Customs, informs me, that it was a great mistake to grant "Lookout Hill" to the British Consular authorities; it commands a splendid view of the harbour, and was occupied by a former harbour master of Chemulpo, who selected it as his residence.

By the Jury—I cannot say whether he had drunk the liniment. The cork of the bottle was out, but I do not know whether there had been anything in the bottle for him to drink.
